Hurricane Florence Disaster Response

Hurricane Florence struck the southeastern coast affecting thousands. One of this storm's greatest threats is its anticipated amount of rainfall, with some areas already reporting up to 40 inches. Rain is causing extensive flooding, echoing the damage from Hurricanes Harvey and Maria just a little over a year ago.

LCMS Disaster Response is walking again alongside the Synod's Southeastern District and local congregations to bring effective relief and human care to those suffering from Florence. Our congregations in the affected areas again will be the focal points of Gospel-centered relief and human-care work over the months and years ahead.

You and many others were incredibly compassionate and generous following Harvey, Irma, Maria and other disasters over the past year. We are wisely using each dollar contributed to bring relief and recovery to the people impacted by those events.

LCMS World Relief and Human Care, thanks to your same compassionate generosity, continues to share the mercy of God in Christ. It's in our DNA as a church body. While we assist those still recovering from last year's events, we are now preparing to assist those in the Southeast who now feel the same effects of wind, wave and water.

Trinity Loves Collegiates: Campus Crates

Trinity's Board for Youth Ministry is beginning a new effort to support our college students by sending "campus crates" during their academic year. Trinity Congregation is invited to share in this special ministry, reminding our college students that even though they might not be physically here with us on a weekly basis, we are still encouraging them with our prayers and support.

College Students and Parents: If you would like to receive (or would like your student to receive) a Campus Crate, please fill out a Google form (printed or online) no later than November 4th, 2018.

Congregation: If you would like to provide a gift for Campus Crates, please bring items to the Church Lobby by November 4th, 2018. If you would like to help to assemble and send Campus Crates, please visit with DCE Leah or Youth Board Chair, Sally Beaudean.

Campus Crate Contents: Examples for gifts include small items such as Post-It Notes, gift cards for fuel or food, writing utensils, devotional material, microwave popcorn and meals, stress ball, wrapped candies and snacks, decks of cards, bubble wrap, hot chocolate packets, "dollar-store" games and toys for "stress-busters", a personal note of encouragement, etc.

Dear Trinity Families and Friends,

The students and teachers have been very busy getting the 2018-2019 school year off to a fantastic start with classrooms growing both academically and spiritually. With all the changes in staffing this year, the transition has gone smoothly and we are blessed to have such quality educators here at TLS. Our theme this year, "Be Bold, Be Strong" has guided our WEDNESDAY chapels and our Faith Families.

As the busy school year has started, I can't thank all the extra hands that have made numerous events happen at school. Grandparent's and Goodies; PTL Fundraiser; volleyball games; and various field trips to the fair, Begg's Family Farm, Liberty Days, Future Freshmen Day at Saxony, pumpkin patch, and the Mass Band Day at Saxony (with a concert being held on Oct. 1 at 6:00) are just some of the events that have occurred. Thank you to all who help, participate, and drive to make these experiences happen for our students.

A huge thank you to PTL for funding The Windy City Players! On Wednesday, Sept. 19, their performance of Tom Sawyer was fantastic. Our students always enjoy them coming to our school! Don't be surprised if The Adventures of Tom Sawyer isn't added to a TLS child's future reading list. Many of them raised their hands about wanting to read it....what a great way to spread the enthusiasm of literacy.

The lower wing (K-4) participated in See You at the Pole on Wednesday September 19, and the upper wing (5-8) participated in See You at the Pole on Wednesday, Sept. 26. We are so blessed to be able to pray and praise our Lord openly here at TLS. To see all the students and their families gathered around the flagpole praying together truly is a special moment. Thank you to DCE Leah Kortmeyer for leading us in prayer and organizing our See You at the Pole events.

Thank you for supporting our ministry here at Trinity Lutheran School. It is truly a blessing to have such strong support from our church family and beyond.

In Christ,
Missy Adams

THANK YOU to everyone who ordered from Domino's on August 28th. The PTL received $373 from this night!
