St. Louis, MO
June 7, 2019

$75

Travel with us to St. Louis and learn about the circumstances that brought Bosnian refugees to St. Louis; the war, the mass killings, and concentration camps. This group numbers between 60,000 and 70,000 - the largest group of "Bosniaks" outside of Bosnia-Herzegovina. We will have lunch (included) at Grbiks, where we will have a choice of 3 Bosnian dishes.

We begin the day with a stop at a coffee shop where we hear stories from local folks while enjoying a latte or European soda. Also included in the trip are a stop at an old fashioned butcher shop that offers unbelievable prices on quality veal and a visit to Europa market with many ethnic offerings plus selections from Central and Eastern Europe. They have a selection of European chocolates, rich coffee, smoked meats pickled vegetables and other unique foodstuffs.

We will also tour Bevo Mills with other opportunities to shop for unusual European items.

We will depart from the East side of mall (near the Farmer's Market location) at 8:45 AM.
